Collins Home Hardware Bantam Huskies Complete Hat Trick

Submitted by Jeff Hamill
The Collins Home Hardware Huskies recently attended a tournament in Espanola on March 19th to 21st. This was the Huskies 4th tournament of the year and they were coming off a big win in Onaping Falls earlier in February. The Huskies record in tournament competition for the season to date, 2 championship wins and 1 consolation.

The tournament consisted of a double round robin in which the Huskies would play each team twice. Other teams participating in the Bantam division were Espanola and Little Current. Friday's first game saw the Huskies up against Little Current. With no knowledge of the opposition the Huskies came out very tentative in the first period but outscored their opponent by a count of 2-0. In the second period the flood gates opened with the Huskies dominating the period scoring 6 goals. Little Current was only able to answer with one of their own before the period ended. In the third Little Current scored their second goal of the game but the Huskies answered with a pair of their own. The final score 10 -2. The forward line of Lauren Hamill, Brandon Wright and Holli Canning combined for eight points, Colin Lindquist was strong defensively and offensively with a goal and two assists. Tyler Card had a very strong game and was named hustler of the game. Cole Bignucolo was defensively sound and was named defensive player of the game. Thunder Panamick in goal had a strong game making many timely saves.

Up next for the Huskies were the home town favourites from Espanola. After the first period the Huskies dominated and found themselves up by 3 going into the second. Goals came off the sticks of Remington Doyon assisted by Cole Crockford, Tyler Card assisted by Matt Domingue and Colin Lindquist. Harley McWatch picked up the final goal assisted by Tyler Card and Lauren Hamill. Over confidence and poor defensive play by the Huskies allowed the team from Espanola to score 3 unanswered goals in the second period to tie things up. The third period saw no scoring from either team until late in the third when Espanola jumped on a loose puck and put it past net minder Jayme Martel. Final score Espanola 4 Huskies 3. Hustler of the game went to Lauren Hamill and defensive player of the game went to Nolan Jones.

The third game was a rematch against Little Current who came out very strong scoring two goals late in the first period and stunning the Huskies by a score of 2-1 after one. In the scoring came from the sticks of many different players. The forward line of Tyler Card, Jimmy Laurence and Matt Perreault played very strong and had many chances to score. Matt Domingue had a strong game defensively and Lauren Hamill, Brandon Wright and Holli Canning had another strong game combing with 6 more points. Hustler of the game went to Matt Perreault and Alex Nicol was named defensive player of the

G a m e 4 - E s p a n o l a V S C h a p l e a u and the Huskies knew they had to play better if they were going to get a win over the home town favourites. Espanola went ahead midway though the first but only 2 minutes later the Huskies grinder line of Tyler Card, Matt Perrault and Jimmy Lafrance were able to stuff one past the Espanola net minder. The second period saw no scoring from either team but the fans enjoyed some good end to end action. Midway through the third, Cole Crockford buried a nice pass from Remington Doyon to go ahead. The Huskies relied on their solid defence and good goaltending to secure the win. Hustler of the game went to Cole Crockford and defensive player of the game went to Jayme Martel.

The Sunday final was set Collins Home Hardware Huskies VS Espanola. The Huskies ended the round robin with a record of 3 - 1 for 6 points. Espanola had an identical record but drew first place due to goals for and against throughout round robin play. Sunday morning came with a bit of adversity, two of the players came to the arena one wearing a cast and the other a sling and would not be able to play in the final. The Huskies came out very strong in the first period. At the 8 minute mark Remington Doyon converted a pass from Colin Lindquist to go ahead 1-0. Nearing the end of the period Holli Canning scored the second goal assisted by Lauren Hamill and Layla Pinter. 30 seconds later while short handed Holli Canning fired a blast through the legs of the Espanola goalie assisted by Lauren Hamill and Matt Domingue. The only other scoring came from the stick of Cole Crockford assisted by Remington Doyon and Colin Lindquist. Espanola was unable to get anything offensively going and Jayme Martel made the key saves to secure the win and the shutout. Hustler of the game went to Remington Doyon, defensive player Layla Pinter and shutout award went to Jayme Martel. Final Score 4 - 0. Huskies Champs!!

It was a great tournament and really showed how a team can come together and develop throughout a season. Balanced scoring and strong defensive play was evident nearing the final couple of games. Colin Lindquist was captain consistency; Tyler Card brought his game to a new level playing at both ends of the ice. The second year forward line of Lauren Hamill, Brandon Wright and Holli Canning were dominant throughout combining for 19 points in 5 games.

The hat trick has been completed for the Collins Home Hardware Huskies. It was a great season and many thanks go out to the players for their commitment to the team, and the parents for their support throughout the year.

Thank You

The family of the late Rev. William Ivey would like to thank all who have helped us through our loss. Thank you to all who attended the funeral, and who took time to send letters, cards and flowers. Thank you also to those who sent mass cards. We are very grateful for the generous gifts of food and many acts of kindness. The help we have received is much appreciated, especially the driving and help with travel arrangements. Special thanks to Pastor Dan Lee and the Chapleau Pentecostal Church for everything they did for us, for the use of the church and the wonderful lunch. Thank you to Wilma Schmidt and the funeral choir for their gift of music. Thank you, also, to all who sent donations to Saint Mary's Anglican Catholic Church. Finally, we wish to thank the P. M Gilmartin Funeral Home and Ms. Valerie Fahrer for their skilled and compassionate handling of all the necessary arrangements. The loss of a father, brother, son, or husband is not easy, but the outpouring of support we have received from the community of Chapleau has made our burden so much easier to bear.

Michael McMullen recalls good times growing up in Chapleau in the fifties while earning 'some real money' too

Chapleau Moments

by Michael J. Morris

Michael McMullen lived in Chapleau from 1952-54 when his father Keith came to work for the Austin Lumber company, but his roots in the community go back to 1885 when his great great uncle Patrick Mulligan (and mine) arrived and opened one of the first general stores, called Murrays and Mulligan General Merchants.

After reading Michael's family history of his grandparents, William and May (Mulligan) McMullen, both of whom lived in Chapleau in the early years of the 20th Century, I asked him if I might share some of his recollections of life in Chapleau. He agreed and his recollections capture much of life as it was for us growing up in Chapleau during the early Fifties.

"I have fond memories of that time and still have many friendships that have endured since then," Michael wrote. "More importantly, I met my wife, Alison, during this period. She is the daughter of Leslie and Margaret (Jack) McMillan and sister of David McMillan. Les was a CPR locomotive engineer who operated out of Chapleau for over 25 years, retiring in 1966." Mr. McMillan also served as a member of Chapleau township council.

After arriving in Chapleau, Michael and his parents lived for a time in the offices of Austin Lumber on the second floor of the building at the north-west corner of Birch and Young Streets. Their bedrooms were in two of the separate enclosed offices. "There was a Dominion store on the first floor. (later the Bank of Montreal). Years later I would discover that this was the building that Patrick Mulligan had rebuilt in 1895 following a fire at his original store on this site."

"I remember the good times that a kid could have, particularly in a small town. There was a ball field behind the high school where everyone played ball on a summer evening, the natural ice arena, which was the place to go for skating on a Friday night and to play hockey on a Saturday during the winter.

"We also played road hockey on the snow packed, icy streets, particularly on Aberdeen Street, not with a ball, but with a real puck.

"I remember playing bantam hockey for the Chapleau Huskies team when we won the first Broomhead Trophy in 1953-54... It was an exciting 4-3 victory in overtime over the IOOF team... We went to celebrate at the Boston Cafe where Harry (Boo Boo) Hong, one of my teammates got his mother to open their family restaurant for our celebration. That game is still mentioned among those of us who played."

He also recalled that it was on an empty lot to the west of the Boston Cafe that he first participated in building an outdoor skating/hockey rink. "Boo Boo Hong asked me, and several others to help him and his brothers (Yen and Jimmy) to do this." This was where the Bridgeview Motel until recently owned by Yen Hong was built. It was also the location where Patrick Mulligan had built a warehouse and post office.

Michael recalled earning "some real money" for the first time in Chapleau. Mrs. Elsie Wilkinson, the widow of Dr. Steve Wilkinson paid him 25 cents to cut the grass on her property on Beech Street with her hand mower once a week.

"I was a pin boy at the bowling alley for probably 15-20 cents an hour. I was down at the end of the alley where the pins were placed. My responsibility was to properly position the pins during each frame, and to put the balls in the track to return to the players. As I recall, I was looking after two lanes at one time. You had to be alert because of where the pin could go after being hit. There was a foot slot at the end of the bowling lane that you stepped on that pushed the pins up from the floor for each of the five bowling pins to be placed on."

The bowling alley was located on Birch Street across from the Chapleau News Depot store.

Michael also helped Raymond Soucie a number of times to pick worms to sell to fishermen for about 25 cents a container. He noted that in the early 1950s, 25 cents went a long way, as admission to the theatre was only 15-20 cents. Michael and I also delivered flyers for Simpsons order office which had been recently established in Chapleau.

"In the days before television, a radio was a great thing to have," Michael recalled. Radio was non-existent during the day until the CBC installed repeater stations, but "... as the sun was going down the reception started to come in and after sundown the reception was really good, particularly for powerful stations from cities in the United States, such as Fort Wayne (WOWO), Pittsburgh (KDKA) and Boston (WBZ)."

Michael remembers some of the popular radio shows such as the Lone Ranger, Jack Benny, the Green Hornet and Inner Sanctum with "its scary squeaky door at the beginning of the program. Canadian shows such as Wayne and Shuster, and the Happy Gang were very popular. We got the Saturday night hockey games, usually from Toronto with Foster Hewitt and the Toronto Maple Leafs."

He liked listening to baseball games particularly his favorite team at the time, the Brooklyn Dodgers. They were on WMGM, 1050 on the dial from New York and the sponsors were Lucky Strike and Schaefer beer. Vince Scully was the junior announcer and he is still calling games for the Los Angeles Dodgers. On weekends there were baseball games on the United States Armed Forces Network on short wave radio with Dizzy Dean and Buddy Blattner.

After moving to Toronto in 1954, Michael did not return to Chapleau until the Chapleau High School reunion in 1997. Many changes had taken place in the 43 years since he left. The old Patrick Mulligan store was gone as was the natural ice arena on Lorne Street replaced by the Chapleau Recreation Centre on the other side of town. The movie theatre had closed, and the YMCA was gone as well. The

Hughes stands up for Aboriginal Healing Foundation funding

Algoma - Manitoulin - Kapuskasing MP Carol Hughes stood in the House of Commons today to table a petition signed by people opposed to the removal of funding for the Aboriginal Healing Foundation (AHF).

The AHF is designed to assist in the healing process and reconciliation of those affected by the physical, mental, and sexual abuse caused by the residential school system. The federal government has decided to stop all funding of the program going forward, with the current fiscal year of funding running out after March 31, 2010.

"The government has formally apologized for the treatment of Aboriginal people within the residential school system," Hughes said. "However, it seems that this government wishes to reconcile with Aboriginal people only through statements. The actions of this government do not speak to true commitment to reconciliation for First Nations people."

The NDP have been echoing the calls from aboriginal groups to maintain AHFs work while a strong need among survivors and those affected by the residential schools persists.

Ontario Weather Review: March 2010

The same weather trends as the ones observed in the past few months persisted in March. Province-wide temperatures were above normal values and total precipitation amounts were lower than normal values for most locations.

Many temperature records were broken across the province. Mean temperature records dating back to the 1940s were surpassed. Many locations experienced mean temperatures of higher than normal values with differences ranging from 2.5 to 8.1 degrees for the month of March.

Precipitation records were broken for least snowfall and least total precipitation. No rainfall records were broken, but a few locations received significantly above or below normal rainfall values. Respectively, Hamilton and Toronto received more while Elliot Lake, North Bay, Sudbury, and Warton received less.

Many locations received no snow or only trace amounts of snowfall during the month. This is the case for Warton, Ottawa, Sudbury, Muskoka, North Bay, Elliot Lake, London, Thunder Bay, Trenton, and Toronto. Once again, low snowfall amounts shattered records dating as far back as 1898. Most of these sites received only a light dusting of snow.

Total precipitation amounts were generally much less than normal values. Many sites in northwestern Ontario broke records by a difference of 38 to 66 mm from normal values. Most southern Ontario locations received less precipitation than normal this March, with the exception of Hamilton, which had the wettest March since 2004. Severe Weather

March 2010 came in like a lamb, left like a lamb and remained pretty much lamb-like for most of the days in between. The month is normally known for wild swings in temperature as lingering cold air masses battle the arrival of warmer, spring-like air masses from the south. This struggle can produce big storms that bring messy combinations of rain, freezing rain and snow to large portions of the province. However, this time around, aside from a few bouts of freezing rain and some mornings where fog significantly reduced visibilities in some areas, nasty weather was missing in action.

Northern Ontario Has A New Number To Report Forest Fires

Effective April 1, 310-FIRE (3473) is the new, toll-free emergency forest fire phone number across northern Ontario.

Early detection and reporting are essential to quickly managing forest fires. Having one number will make it easier and more efficient for Ontarians to report forest fire emergencies.

The number will operate north of the French and Mattawa Rivers. It is not available for satellite phones or from phones outside the province; calls from these locations should go to local fire departments.

The previous 1-888 forest fire reporting numbers will continue to operate throughout the 2010 fire season to ensure a smooth transition as directories are updated with the new number.
