That Was A Big Sale!

On Saturday August 10th, Maison Boreal Home Inc. held a very successful fundraiser: a Garage Sale. The previous day, volunteers labored to bring countless items to the Community Hall of the Arena, while others set up the donated items on the many tables in the hall. Sale day went well, with workers strengthened with coffee and goodies (thanks!) while waiting on shoppers.

Line Fuchs as Sale Co-ordinator and Rita Pilon, Sale Organizer, both Directors of Maison Boreal Home, put many hours into their job. Project Co-ordinator Ben Burns did "Heavy Lifting" and worked Powerpoint magic with the MBH slide show. Membership Clerk Arlene Morita welcomed some new members to MBH.

Other Directors

of the organization pitched in: Pierrette Ouelette, Tahise Demers, Doreen Cachagee, and Bonnie Ivey. They brought still more people with them to help: Bill Cachagee, Conrad Laroque, Fernand Gauthier, Rejean Ouellette, Richard Pilon, Cal and Chelsea (Gagne) Swearengen, Betty O'Hearn, Terry O'Hearn, Ceilidh St.Amand, and Josee Gerrior.

At the end, leftover items were collected by still more volunteers: Dave MacDonald and Willie Huard from the Chapleau Pentacostal Church, the Second Hand Store ladies, and Elise Charron of Entre Amis/Between Friends Coffee Shop.

Maison Boreal Home wishes to thank all who willingly donated items for sale, or gave cash contributions. A big "thank you" goes to the Children's Aid Society, ACE contracting, and Multech Contracting. Another goes to Line Fuchs who donated two very valuable door prizes! The first prize was won by Katherine Beaupre, from Dubreuilville. The second prize went to Bonnie Brunette of Chapleau.

The sale was well attended and it is hoped it can become an annual event. Its success is due to the generosity of community members who gave items for sale, and purchased items. Thank you all.

Thanks also go to Helene Pineau, who translates these articles for us!

Taxpayers Shouldn't Subsidize Mobile Phone Competition

by Gregory Thomas,
Federal Director

It's not hard to understand why the Canadian government would want more companies selling mobile phones in Canada.

Canadians, from coast-to-coast open their bills every month from Rogers, Telus and Bell and wish they were lower. They wish additional competition would drive up choice and drive down bills.

And more competition appears to be on its way. U.S.-based Verizon Communications appears poised to enter the Canadian market.

For any federal politician, it's an attractive picture: Verizon Communications riding into Canada, like a knight in shining armour, to smite the Canadian wireless companies and save us all some money on our mobile phones.

However, it shouldn't cost Canadian taxpayers a billion dollars to achieve this.

To be clear, Prime Minister Harper isn't going to be handing a cheque for a cool billion to the CEO of Verizon on the steps of the New York Stock Exchange. He's simply going stage an auction for wireless spectrum in January, an auction where Rogers, Telus, and Bell are not allowed to bid.

Analysts expect Verizon to pay roughly $1 billion less than it would need to pay if it were bidding against the Big Three.

Canadian citizens own the airwaves. The federal government, on behalf of taxpayers, makes a lot of money with its bandwidth auctions: the last one brought in $4.3 billion. That's a lot when you consider the government expects to run an $18.7 billion deficit this year. Unfortunately, this year, at least one of those borrowed billions is headed straight into the corporate treasury of Verizon Communications in New York.

Verizon doesn't need the money: it already has 100 million customers in the U.S. In July, Verizon reported profits of $2.25 billion US in the previous three months alone, on sales of nearly $30 billion US.

Nobody is going to argue, with a straight face, that Canadian wireless operators couldn't use some more competition. But do we really need to rig an auction sale and offer Verizon a billion-dollar bonus to get into the game?

And why Verizon? There's nothing wrong with Verizon, but if we're going to open up the market to foreign ownership and additional competition, why not just open up the auction to any company, foreign or domestic, to bid on the additional spectrum? It could be T-Mobile, AT&T, or UK companies like one of Verizon's owners - Vodafone. Or one of the Big Three might outbid all of them.

As taxpayers, isn't it in our best interest to sell our spectrum to the highest bidder?

And if it turns out that it's a new company or two new companies that purchase the spectrum, Canadians also benefit from the increased competition.

Sometimes an American operator can move in and turn the Canadian market upside down. Wal-Mart is a good example. Sometimes it's a different story: Target's takeover of the Canadian Zellers locations seems to be a work in progress: prices and selection in Canada don't come close to the U.S. experience.

The important difference between Wal-Mart, Target and Verizon, is that both Wal-

Arthur 'Babe' Therriault of Chapleau pioneer family follows career as a boxer starting at age 13 with a win over Stan Deluce

Chapleau Moments

by Michael J. Morris

Arthur 'Babe' Therriault, a member of one of the first families to settle in Chapleau after the arrival of the Canadian Pacific Railway shares his life and times in a really fascinating the navy in World War II, to work in Chapleau and on to other places, and now retirement.

Babe, as he was known to everyone in Chapleau, is the son of Steve and Gertrude had come to Chapleau to work as a pastry cook in the Queens Hotel. They married and she was Babe's grandmother.

I received a copy of "The Life and Times of Babe Therriault" written by Babe, recently from Brenda and David May. Brenda is Babe's daughter and David, who many will recall was an outstanding hockey player in Chapleau, the son of Roy and Carmen May.

This week I am going to share some highlights from Babe's boxing career, and in another column more of his life and times that has been a pleasure to read this summer. Thanks Brenda and Dave.

Born on November 11, 1923. Babe celebrates his 90th birthday on November 11.

He started his boxing career when he was 13 at 115 pounds. "One of the boys I remember boxing was Stan Deluce who I defeated. Stan deluce later founded White River Air Services and other airline services.

"There was also a guy from Localsh who came to Chapleau to fight and I again defeated him. Then when I was still in school, the police chief came in the morning to get me to go to Sudbury to fight because he had some position in the boxing club. ... ther best coach was a Scottish man by the name of Jack Brough who also worked at the CPR as a boiler maker. He was one great guy and i would have walked through hell or high water for him.

"I was the last one picked to go to Sudbury. The other boys were Freddy Welch, Ken Crowhurst, Cecil McAdam and I think Harvey Glabb was also there.

Babe won his first fight but in the championship round he faced Cecil Fielding getting his first lesson in losing. However, he notes that Fielding ended up owing Fielding Lumber Company and became a millionaire, "so I don't think I did any harm to him! Anyway I got a medal for all my trouble."

The next year Fielding came to Chapleau and knocked Babe out in the first round. "Boy was my mother ever frightened. She came rushing to the basement in the town hall right into the kitchen which we were using as a dressing room. I was quite embarrassed but I was OK and lived to fight another day".

By the time he was 15, Babe won his first title as the Sudbury district lightweight defeating Freddie O'Hagen. A news report said: "Therriault registered four knockdowns before he could find and opening for that lethal punch that spelled doom for the popular O'Hagen. Trainer Murphy was so excited that when his boy scored the final knock-out, he was counting with the referee to make sure it was really a victory."

In 1941 his parents arranged for him to go to Fort William and he got a free ride on a passenger train with Mr. Bob Faught as the conductor. However, in due course Babe enlisted in the Royal Canadian Navy as a Stoker Second Class. He did some boxing while in the navy.

After the end of World War II, Babe returned to boxing heading to Toronto from Chapleau to see Jack Allen, the top promoter. He was pretty successful amateur boxer fighting in various cities including some in the United States.

Here is part of a story by boxing writer Claude Kewley about one of Babe's fights at Maple Leaf Gardens.

"In Art Therriault... promoter Deacon Allen at Maple Leaf Gardens introduced the possessor of the deadliest right cross seen in local cauliflower circles in several years. It might be added, Therriault is the only fighter the writer has seen in more than two years here who knows how to use his right and when to use it.

"Down for a nine count and apparently on the ice for keeps in the second, Therriault arose to score a sensational clean-cut third round win over New Toronto's hard-punching welter-weight Johnny Wilson." More than 5,000 people were at the Gardens.

Babe's boxing career ended following a fight in Buffalo in which he broke his right hand, losing it in a split decision. I have only tried to capture some of the highlights.

He returned to Chapleau where the life and times of Arthur 'Babe' Therriault continued, including his marriage to Victoria 'Vicky' Mallek. More to come about Babe in a later column. My sincere thanks to Brenda, David and Babe for sharing. My email is mj.morris@live.ca

C'était toute une vente! Taxpayers Shouldn't Subsidize Mobile Phone Competition

Le samedi 10 août dernier, Maison Boréal Home Inc. menait une activité bénéfique qui fut couronnée de succès: une vente débarras. La veille, des bénévoles travaillaient fiévreusement à emporter quantité d'articles donnés pour la vente à la salle communautaire, tandis que d'autres les étalaient sur les tables d'exposition. Le jour de la vente se déroula très bien. Mentionnons que les préposés aux tables étaient fortifiés de café et de petites gâteries (ce fut très apprécié!).

Line Fuchs, coordonnatrice de la vente et Rita Pilon, organisatrice, toutes deux directrices du comité de la Maison Boréal Home, travaillèrent de longues heures au profit de cette activité. Le coordonnateur de projet, Ben Burns, aidait entre autres à la manutention et émerveilla la salle avec son diaporama de Power Point sur la nouvelle résidence Boréal. Arlene Morita, à titre de préposée à la membricité, s'acquitta de sa tâche en accueillant les nouveaux adhérents à l'organisme.

D'autres membres y prêtèrent main forte, notamment Pierrette Ouellette, Tahise Demers, Doreen Cachagee et Bonnie Ivey. Ces dernières recrutèrent d'autres bénévoles, y compris Bill Cachagee, Conrad Laroque, Fernand Gauthier, Réjean Ouellette, Richard Pilon, Cal et Chelsea (Gagne) Swearngen, Betty O'Hearn, Terry O'Hearn, Ceilidh St.Amand et Josee Gerrior.

Au terme de la vente, encore d'autres volontaires furent chargés de recueillir tous les articles non-vendus: Dave MacDonald et Willie Huard de l'église Pentecôtiste de Chapleau, les dames du magasin d'articles usagés de l'Église Anglicane et Elise Charron de la boutiquecafé Entre Amis/Between Friends.

Maison Boréal Home tient donc à remercier chaleureusement tous ceux qui ont contribué articles ou dons en argent au profit de cette activité. Un gros "merci" à la Société d'aide à l'enfance, ACE Contracting et Multech Contracting. Une mention spéciale à Line Fuchs d'avoir fourni deux excellents prix de présence! Le premier prix fut remporté par Katherine Beaupré de Dubreuilville; le deuxième fut remis à Bonnie Brunette de Chapleau.

Il y eut une très bonne participation et les organisateurs espèrent en faire une activité annuelle. Son succès peut être attribué à vous, les gens de Chapleau, notamment ceux qui ont fourni les articles et ceux qui l'ont encouragée. Merci à vous tous.

Merci également à Hélène Pineau, notre traductrice!

wireless bandwidth before sizing up the Canadian market and backing out of it.

The Harper government blocked Shaw from flipping its unused wireless bandwidth to Rogers, one of many skirmishes in the ongoing battle between the regulator and the industry to keep competition alive. In Quebec, rather than hesitating as Shaw did, Videotron has waded into wireless, making some unexpected gains. After taking a risk and launching against the Big Three in Quebec, Videotron is livid about the special deal now being cooked up in Ottawa for Verizon.

Industry Minister James Moore has clearly articulated his concern for mobile customers, but there's apparently little concern about taxpayers and the billion they will be losing out on under this rigged auction. This upcoming auction should be a win for both customers and taxpayers.

CHADWIC HOME, FAMILY RESOURCE CENTRE. Offers shelter, emotional support, and information for women and their children who are in crisis situations. We have a Toll Free Crisis Line which is staffed 24 hours a day. We can arrange for free transportation to the Centre for women who live in the Algoma/Chapleau area. We also offer support to women who live in the communities of Chapleau, White River, Dubreuilville, and Hornepayne through our Outreach Program. Our Outreach Worker travels to those communities to meet with women who need emotional support as well as information about their rights and options. If you need to speak with the Outreach Worker when she is in your community, you can call the Centre at any time to set up an appointment. You do not need to be a resident of the Centre in order to use our services. If you need someone to talk to or if you just need someone to listen, call our Toll Free Crisis line at 1-800-461-2242 or you can drop in at the Centre. We are here for you.

Societe Alzheimer Society meetings will be held at the Chapleau Hospital every 1st Monday of each month starting from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Moments in time
THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Sept. 5, 1666, firefighters in London begin blowing up homes in a desperate attempt to halt the spread of a great fire through the city. By the time the fire was finally snuffed out the following day, more than 100,000 people had been left homeless.
- On Sept. 7, 1776, during the Revolutionary War, the 8-foot-long American submersible craft Turtle attempts to attach a time bomb to the hull of British Admiral Richard Howe's flagship Eagle in New York Harbor. It was the first use of a submarine in warfare.
- On Sept. 6, 1915, a prototype tank nicknamed Little Willie rolls off the assembly line in England. It weighed 14 tons, got stuck in trenches and crawled over rough terrain at only 2 mph. For secrecy, production workers were told the vehicles would be used to carry water on the battlefield. The new vehicles were shipped in crates

- labeled "tank," and the name stuck.
- On Sept. 3, 1935, a new land-speed record is set by Britain's Sir Malcolm Campbell. On the Bonneville Salt Flats of Utah, Campbell and his 2,500-horsepower car Bluebird made two runs over a 1-mile course at speeds averaging 301 mph.
- On Sept. 8, 1945, U.S. troops land in Korea to begin their postwar occupation of the southern part of that nation, almost exactly one month after Soviet troops had entered northern Korea to begin their own occupation. Although the U.S. and Soviet occupations were supposed to be temporary, the division of Korea quickly became permanent.
- On Sept. 2, 1969, America's first automatic teller machine (ATM) makes its public debut, dispensing cash to customers at Chemical Bank in Rockville Center, N.Y. It wasn't until 1971 that an ATM could handle multiple functions, including providing customers' account balances.
- On Sept. 4, 1972, U.S. swimmer Mark Spitz wins his
