a christmas message from Mayor Earle J. Freeborn

On behalf of myself, Deputy-Mayor Andre Byham, Councillors Bud Swanson, Jacques Tremblay, Doug Greig and your Municipal staff, it gives me great pleasure to wish all the citizens of Chapleau and surrounding area a safe and joyous Christmas.

Your Council looks forward to serving you in the coming year as we renew our vision to strengthen our community. The challenges we face are many and varied but with a dedicated Council at work for you I feel confident that these challenges will be met and overcome.

Christmas is family time and we sincerely hope that you and your families make the most of the festive season to enjoy it together in true Christmas fashion. As always, we remind you to enjoy the abundance of cheer and festivities and make full use of the designated driver system to ensure everyone has a safe and happy holiday season.

Merry Christmas to all.

 Earle J. Freeborn*

Chers concitoyens de Chapleau et de la région, permettez-moi de me joindre au maire-adjoint André Byham, aux conseillers Bud Swanson, Jacques Tremblay et Doug Greig et au personnel municipal, pour vous souhaiter un Noël joyeux et passé en toute sécurité.

Le conseil se prépare avec anticipation à la perspective de travailler en votre faveur pour mettre au point notre vision d'une communauté forte et dynamique. Les défis que nous affronterons sont nombreux et disparates mais compte-tenu de l'équipe dévouée qui vous représente, je suis sûr que nous saurons tous les relever avec succès.

Noël est un temps privilégié pour les familles et c'est notre souhait que vous puissiez profiter de ce temps passé parmi les vôtres dans l'esprit des Fêtes. Comme toujours, alors que les réceptions se multiplient pendant cette période, nous vous demandons d'avoir recours aux chauffeurs désignés, au besoin, pour éviter tout contretemps aux réjouissances.

Joyeux Noël à tous et à chacun.

Le maire,
 Earle J. Freeborn

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Wanted: A few community minded citizens

By Jim Prince

Some of the Township's Standing Committees, which have a strong record of influencing decisions made by the Chapleau's elected fathers, have a number of vacancies to be filled. Council is also looking for residents to serve on the new youth committee, which was promised in the Mayor's inaugural address.

In addition to influencing council's decisions, committees may also serve as a step towards election to Township Council as was the case in the most recent municipal election, when Doug Greig, who served on several committees, was successful in his first bid for an elected seat on council.

Now, the Township is looking for residents to fill the vacancies on the Public Works Committee and the Chapeau Heritage Museum Committee, which were created by the election of Greig to the Township Council. It's hoped some residents will respond to advertisements in the newspaper.

At the same time, Council has commenced the process of finding additional volunteers to serve on the mayor's new committee on youth which was outlined in his inaugural address and has the support of council. The subject of activities for the youth of community has been an ongoing concern locally, and now the Mayor has proposed a formal committee to deal with the issue. It's make up would included members of council, the Township's Director of Recreation and at least two members of the Community Policing Committee. The Mayor is also calling on interested parents and the youth of the community to step forward and be a part of the initiative.

While the entire council would be on the committee at start up, it's the intention to reduce the number of councilors after start up.

Christmas Memorial

Rachel Law Passed away: August 1, 2005

One year has come and passed, this sharp pain, 'tis only a memory.

Everything happened so fast, a change from mourn to remembrance. Distant memories, thoughts of the past, of the person you once were.

Rest assured, our Christmas will be merry, you wouldn't want it any other way. If the family was a cake, you are the cherry, on a pinnacle watching over us.

Although you're not here, it isn't scary, We know you're in good hands, in a better place.

Anyone who has lost a loved one, and to the family that loved Rachel:

Stand in front of your tree, pray and your done, enjoy your holiday, they would want that. Never dwell, always remember, have fun, spread holiday cheer everywhere

We will always remember you, Memere.

Love: Tim, Baylee and Bryanen

Tips to Ensuring A Safe and Happy Holiday

While it is easy to get caught up in the spirit of the season, it is important to remember that holiday activities can increase the number of safety hazards in your home. Here are a few tips to help you keep your loved ones safe so that you can enjoy a happy holiday.

Holiday Lights

Test your lights before you string them each year, being sure to discard worn strands and replacing bunt-out bulbs. Remember to never run extension cords under carpets, through doorways or in places where they might be damaged by furniture or be tripped over. No more than three light strings can be safely connected together in most cases, though your manufacturer's instructions should provide you with greater direction. Take steps to ensure that your children or pets do not put electrical decorations or cords in their mouths. Do not overload extension cords by plugging in too many, and remember to unplug all indoor decorative lights when you go to bed or leave the house. Be sure to plug outdoor electrical decorations into ground fault protected outlets, and be sure to keep outdoor connections above ground and out of puddles.

Christmas Trees

If you get a real tree, choose a fresh cut one that isn't shedding. Once you've got it home, cut the trunk at an angle, then put the tree in a large, deep, non-tip stand. No matter what kind of tree you have, keep them away from fireplaces, heaters, other heat sources and doorways. Never use electrical lights on a metallic Christmas tree, as the tree can become charged with electricity from faulty lights and potentially electrocute someone who touches it. Do not decorate the lower branches of a Christmas tree, as young children and pets are attracted to shiny, colorful things and may chew or swallow decorations, lights and tinsel.

Candles

Place candles in non-tip holders and do not leave them unattended or within reach of children. Never put a candle on or near the branches of the tree, and always extinguish candles before you leave the room or go to bed. If candles are used as a centerpiece, make sure they do not burn low enough to ignite the decorations.

General Household Safety

If young children are going to be visiting over the holidays, make sure your house is safe for them by covering electrical outlets, barring stairwells and removing furniture and decorations that may be hazardous to children. When entertaining, always keep cosmetics such as perfume, aftershave and nail polish remover, as well as all medications and household chemical products, out of the sight and reach of children and away from heat sources.

THANK YOU

The family of the late Fred Pullen wish to express our sincere appreciation to all those who supported us during this difficult time. To those of you who came from both near and far to offer your condolences, we thank you. We are extremely grateful for the spirit of Kindness that was shown in so many ways through words of sympathy, cards, mass offerings, food, flowers, and donations. Our thanks to Mr. Pat Gilmartin and staff for their kindness and support. To Father Fortin, the Knights of Columbus, and the choir of Sacred Heart Parish for delivering a beautiful funeral mass, and to the ladies of the Catholic Women's League who presented and served a lovely luncheon to our family and friends.

Our sincere appreciation,
 The Pullen Family

Chapleau Public's LEAD Class Helps Out!

The LEAD Class at Chapleau Public School decided to partake in a small project that would help lift the spirits of some of our local citizens. The students challenged themselves to collect as many non-perishable food items as they could within a 2 week period. The LEAD class set a realistic goal of 40 items(4 items per student), which would then be donated to the local Meals of Hope Food Bank. After a very successful 2 weeks of collecting, Chapleau Public's LEAD Class presented the Food Bank with approximately 100 non-perishable food items, more than doubling their original goal!! As a reward, all the students were invited to experience a Meals of Hope luncheon at the Pentecostal Church where they also learned about the running of such a program, and about some other ways they could show their support and help out.

Mr. Maninos, the LEAD Class teacher, indicated that he was very proud of his students throughout the 2 week project, but emphasized that an ongoing and continuous effort is still needed whenever possible. He also felt that the students gained some valuable knowledge about the impact of their contributions, the importance of helping others, and about being thankful for what they are fortunate enough to have.

Christmas at the Stable

On the evening of December 17th, Chapleau citizens of all ages assembled at the hospital parking lot to enjoy the short hay ride to Valentine Farms for the annual "Christmas at the Stable" enactment. Entering the stable area to the sounds of the choir singing Christmas hymns, visitors came upon the sight of a shepherd, an angel and a father watching over a mother comforting her child. The story of the family's arrival at this simple shelter for the child's birth was recounted for the attentive audience. Following the narration, everyone joined in the singing of "Go Tell It On The Mountain", before boarding the hay wagon for the trip back. What has become an annual tradition in Chapleau serves to refresh in our minds these simplistic beginnings and the true meaning of Christmas.
