Chapleau's Mya Prusky wins Gold in Elements, Spins and Short Program

Submitted by Lark Ritchie

Mya Prusky, one of the most promising skaters in her class at the 2010 James Bay Interclub figure skating competitions held in Timmins this past weekend, set an example for Canada's Olympic Skating Team, taking away three Gold Medals.

The young star, daughter of Doug and Tina (Cappellani) Prusky, of Chapleau Ontario, picked up three gold medals in each of the three classes she entered. On Saturday morning, starting with the Elements category, Mya excelled in her group, not only grabbing her first Gold, but followed up on Sunday with her second, gold in the Spins category. She topped it off with a Gold Medal in the Solo Short Program.

"I came here to have a good time", she said to her mom, after the competition; "My coach tricked me", alluding to the message that it's important for kids to enjoy these meets, rather than focus only on the win. But win she did, much to the excitement of her coach (Nadia), teary-eyed mom, and very proud dad, Doug Prusky.

The family, along with Mya's great aunt, Hilda Ritchie travelled from Chapleau for the event, braving the 230 km trip in under minus-thirty degree weather.

Other fans in the crowd included Lark and Connie Ritchie, two glamour-hound vagabonds from Porcupine who scrambled after the petite star, seeking autographs. "I was really excited when she agreed to sign my paper" exclaimed Lark; "See, she wrote 'Love, Mya Prusky!'" showing the signature to those around him.

"I'll treasure it for a very long time!"

Mya returns to Chapleau to continue her training, and to participate in the Chapleau Figure Skating Club's annual extravaganza, later this season. Fans in Chapleau are eagerly awaiting that venue, and a chance to see this pretty bundle of energy glide across the ice and just as easily, into their hearts.

A proud Mya Prusky posing with her newly won medals.

Soccer rebirth in Chapleau

Over the years soccer became a popular summer sport through the efforts of Rolph Fuchs and other dedicated volunteers.

Community children benefitted physically and socially.

Wishing to continue this tradition, The Chapleau Diabetes Prevention Action Committee with the help of community partners and volunteers, have organized a soccer league for the spring and summer of 2010. They will be offering indoor and outdoor soccer. The indoor soccer will be modeled after a Youth Soccer program in Moosonee, Ontario where youth play in the gym during the months of May and June. The outdoor program will be offered the end of June, operating throughout the summer and wrapping-up end of August.

For our two youngest age groups, indoor soccer will be offered Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Trillium School. The groups are "Juniors" ages 4-6 years old and "Midgets" ages 7-9 years old.

The outdoor program will be for "Seniors" ages 10-13 and ages "14 and up" and offered on Mondays and Wednesdays. These games will be held on the outdoor soccer fields at Trillium and Chapleau High from end of June until end of August.

Sign up for 2010 soccer season will be offered on Monday, February the 15th from 10:00 AM-12:45PM at École Secondaire Trillium and we will be open during lunch, for those that will be working on this holiday, and on Thursday, February 25th from 6:00 PM to 7:30 PM at the Chapleau Public Library.

If you cannot make it to either of these venues, please contact Krista at 864-2427 prior to March 10th.

Part of the fee to join will go towards registration and the other part will go towards uniforms. The uniform fee will be refunded at the end of the year when the uniforms are handed in. A substantial fee increase will occur if registered after March 11th, 2010.

For late sign ups please go to the OPP station between 9am-4pm.

We are hoping to offer a free coaches clinic and workshop

March 8th - International Women's Day

Each year on International Women's Day, in communities around the world, women gather to celebrate the political, economic and social achievements of women. Women's accomplishments are recognized with no regard to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political. Since 1975, March 8th has been designated as a day to remember where women have been and celebrate where we are today. We recognize those whose struggles have achieved for us the successes we currently enjoy.

Most of the readers will not remember a time when women in Canada were denied the right to vote; most will not remember the struggle in the early 1900's to have women declared "persons" for purposes of holding political office. Most of us do not give a second thought to the right of women to participate in sports activities and paid employment. We take these rights for granted. Yet these rights were not always afforded to us - each was won for us through the tireless efforts of a dedicated woman or group of women. She, or they, demanded that the rights afforded to men be extended to women, and that is why we enjoy the measure of equality we do today.

However, although we are now in the 21st century, women and girls around the globe continue to experience injustice. In a large slice of the world, girls are denied access to education, and women are marginalized. Mortality rates for girl babies are high because they do not receive the same medical care as do boy babies; "bride burnings" continue to happen, young girls are kidnapped and trafficked into brothels, in conditions rivalling those of slavery. Women are among the poorest inhabitants of the globe, often receiving no pay for their work. "Women do two-thirds of the world's work, receive 10% of the world's income and own 1% of the means of production." (Richard H. Robbins, Global Problems and the Culture of Capitalism, (Allyn and Bacon, 1999), p.354)

As we celebrate the progress made by women around the globe this International Women's Day; as women come together in unity, to network and mobilize for meaningful change, let's not forget the political and human rights theme of the day as well. Although, in Canada, women have made great strides towards achieving equality, we are a minority - the majority of women around the world continue to live under very oppressive conditions. Until all women are equally respected and honoured, we are all diminished. So, on International Women's Day, we remember the victories and celebrate, and consider the work remaining and resolve to carry on, until future generations of women are free, everywhere, to realize their potential. We act locally, but think globally.

With that thought in mind, on the local level, it is time once again to think about the women who live with and around you, and express your appreciation for their contributions to you and to the community. APANO and CHADWIC Home will once again be hosting the Phenomenal Women event, on Monday, March 8th. Watch for the recognition boxes and forms at local businesses, and submit the name(s) of those women you feel deserve recognition. For more information, call Patty at 864-0556.

Soccer rebirth

for soccer coaches in the near future. Parents are encouraged to sign up as volunteers in some capacity as we will need as much help as possible to succeed.

If finances are a problem, the Manitoulin-Sudbury District Social Services Administration Board offers a program specifically for children's activities entitled "Our Kids Count".

Those who are interested should visit the local office on Lorne Street as soon as possible. It is important to act quickly on this, because an application needs to be made. If the qualifications are met, the funds will be provided for the registration, not as a reimbursement after registration. Please call 864-0430 for more information.

For further information regarding the gym soccer, please contact Straun Frederiksen at 864-1715. For further information regarding the outdoor soccer please contact Lise Martel at 864-2093.

The season wraps up with a party after the last playoff game. We wish to thank our sponsors for their advanced contributions to this worthwhile endeavour. See you at sign up!!

Highway 129 connecting Chapleau to outside world completed in winter of 1949

Chapleau Moments

by Michael J. Morris

While it was often referred to as "a turkey trail through the bush," on January 30, 1949, in the midst of winter, Highway 129 was officially completed.

Since 1885 when Chapleau was founded as a divisional point on the Canadian Pacific Railway, train travel was the only viable way of getting to and from the community. In 1947 the longest drive anyone could take was about 35 miles from town and the motor vehicle was considered a luxury. As a youngster I recall them arriving by rail at the old freight sheds on Lisgar Street.

A highway had been promised for many years and activity would begin around election time but after the votes were counted, it would cease. However, in 1948, a disastrous forest fire changed the dynamics as the provincial government offered opportunities to lumber companies.

Therefore, Highway 129 was completed to Thessalon, and turkey trail it may have been, but a highway was a highway, and it was a first step in improving Chapleau's transportation links with the outside world.

One of the major proponents for a highway over the years was Thomas Godfrey Sr. Mr. Godfrey, who was one of the early builders of Chapleau, played many roles in community life. He was reeve from 1914 to 1916, and at various times owned the pool room, the old as in "old old" arena on Lorne Street, as well as being an insurance agent, Notary Public and Indian Agent. He was also an inventor and long time member of the Chapleau Town Band where he played the euphonium.

Writing in Chapleau Trails, edited and published by Dr. W.R. "Bill" Pellow, Betty (Good) Godfrey, the wife of Thomas Godfrey Jr. wrote the following about her father-in-law and the completion of Highway 129.

"Tom Sr. lived to see his beloved Chapleau highway completed in 1949 and he was a member of the party that drove the first automobile across those last one hundred yards to join Chapleau to the outside world by uniting two primitive bush roads. It was winter. The snow was heavy and deep. It was bitter cold day. The drive had been long and arduous, excitement was high, anticipation of this moment was trying on the healthiest and bravest, however it proved too much for Tom Godfrey and on that day when he was experiencing fulfillment, ultimate pleasure and satisfaction, he had a heart attack and died."

Interestingly the first car that made the trip over the new highway was not one from Chapleau it was a northbound car from Thessalon owned by Frank Korpela and driven by Tom Carter. The Chapleau group heading south had turned back to Chapleau after the death of Mr. Godfrey. The car was new and was equipped with chains and snow tires.

According to a report in the February 3, 1949 Chapleau Post, there were bad road conditions and it was heavy with snow.

The report said that snow was measured on several occasions and was 8-10 inches on the highway and it was often necessary to stop and clear the snow from the grills of the car. On a few occasions it was necessary to shovel drifts in order to get through.

The two men did not make the trip in one day. They left Thessalon about 9:30 a.m in the morning but stopped at Lessards Camp along the way and finished the drive into Chapleau the next morning.

For some reason after the highway opened, the department of highways paved about a twelve mile stretch in the middle of nowhere near Aubrey Falls. I think they said they wanted to check the durability of pavement in a harsh climate.

Over the years Highway 129 was improved, but to me at least, it was always an adventure to travel it. By the Sixties, Highway 101 had been completed between Chapleau and Timmins and Wawa. However, the Ramsey Road continues to be a project unfulfilled for at least the past 50 years as promises are made and then broken to finally complete it.

However, Tom Godfrey Sr. and all those pioneer community builders deserve much credit, even to this day, on their efforts to open Chapleau to the outside world.

Just a note to express my thanks to all those who have been sending me emails about Chapleau Moments. So much appreciated and I am delighted to hear from all of you. My email is mj.morris@live.ca.

Chapleau Novice And Atom hockey teams promoting Fair Trade products during their fundraising campaign

The Chapleau Novice and Atom hockey teams recently held a fundraising campaign whereby they chose to promote Fair Trade products such as coffee, tea, sugar, honey, and chocolate available at the Between Friends Coffee Shop located at Cedar Grove. By purchasing Certified Fair Trade products, one chooses to create better working environments and to secure rights for third-world farmers. Fair Trade pricing also means that farmers are offered the chance to earn a better living, create a better future, and their children can attend school.

As a result of the fundraising campaign, the 12 Atom players raised $435.09 for their team, and the 16 Novice players raised $600.20. The team players wish to thank all who have supported them and in turn have helped improve the lives of third-world farmers and their families.

Les joueurs des équipes de hockey novice et atome font la promotion des produits équitables durant leur campagne de levée de fonds

Une campagne de levée de fonds fut lancée récemment par les joueurs des équipes de hockey Novice et Atome. Pour ce faire, ils ont choisi les produits équitables tels le café, le thé, le sucre, le miel et le chocolat disponibles au Coin Café Entre Amis situé à Cedar Grove. En achetant des produits équitables, on choisit de promouvoir des environnements de travail sécuritaires pour les fermiers du Tiers-Monde. Les prix de vente de ces produits augmentent les revenus des producteurs agricoles, leur permettent d'améliorer leur niveau de qualité de vie, et permettent à leurs enfants d'aller à l'école. Ainsi, à la suite de leur levée de fonds, les 12 joueurs de l'équipe Atome ont vendu pour 435,09 $ de ces produits, et les 16 joueurs de l'équipe Novice en ont vendu pour 600,20 $. Les joueurs ainsi que les membres des deux équipes désirent remercier toutes les personnes qui leurs ont apporté leur appui et qui ont ainsi participé à élever le niveau de vie des producteurs agricoles du Tiers-monde et celui de leurs familles.

Prevent frostbite and hypothermia

Hypothermia and frostbite are the most common but preventable injuries that result from being exposed to the cold.

Frostbite is the freezing of a body part. The nose, cheeks, ears, fingers and toes are usually frostbitten first. The skin feels cold and may feel numb. If frostbite is suspected, cover the area immediately. Do not rub or massage the skin. This can cause tissue damage. If possible, gently place the affected area in warm – not hot – water until it is warm and no longer numb. Apply a sterile dressing to the area. Put dressings between fingers and toes if they are affected. Medical attention is recommended for frostbite.

To prevent frostbite, always wear hats, mittens, and scarves. Avoid tight-fitting boots because they make the feet more vulnerable to frostbite. Wear several thin layers of warm, dry clothing.

Hypothermia is a life-threatening condition. It happens when the body is exposed to the cold for a long time and the body loses more heat than it can generate. The individual may be shivering, drowsy, and confused, and have slurred speech, loss of coordination, and pale and bluish lips. The condition becomes severe when the victim stops shivering. Unconsciousness may soon follow. Treat hypothermia by moving the victim to shelter, replacing wet clothing with dry clothing, and wrapping them in warm blankets. Keep the person lying flat

To stay safe in cold weather, pay attention to weather reports, dress warmly, keep active, and avoid alcohol and caffeine.

For more information on preventing cold weather injuries, please call the Sudbury & District Health Unit at (705) 522-9200, ext. 514.

Ice Hut Registration Required On Area Lakes

To protect the environment and ensure safety, anglers must register new or previously unregistered ice fishing huts on area lakes.

Registration is free and helps prevent anglers from abandoning their huts. Abandoned huts can end up in waterways when the ice thaws.

Huts must be registered in Fishery Management Zone 10 in Chapleau District. To register your ice hut contact Fishery Management Zone 10 call the local ministry office @ 705-864-1710. Generally, this may be done over the telephone. Once registered, an ice fishing hut can be used anywhere in Ontario. Anglers must remove ice huts from the waters of Zone 10 by March 31st. It's a good idea to place huts on 15 cm (six-inch) high wooden blocks to make it easier to remove them at the end of the season. Ice hut owners must keep the area around their huts clear of garbage.

Registration

numbers on ice huts must be at least 6.3 centimetres (2.5 inches) in height and clearly displayed on the outside of the hut. Tent-style ice huts made of cloth or synthetic fabric that have a base area of seven square metres (75.4 square feet) or less when erected do not need to be registered.

It is an offence under the Public Lands Act to leave an ice hut out after ice break up regardless of whether registration and removal dates apply.
