Chapleau is growing its own Physicians!

Doris Mitchell at work in a casting lab

Submitted by SSCHS

Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services (SSCHS) is pleased to announce that the future of medical care in Chapleau is looking very bright. In the summer of 2012 three students of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine will be completing their medical education and training. These three students have signed agreements with SSCHS and will be returning to Chapleau to start practice in the Chapleau Medical Clinic in 2012. The term "returning to Chapleau" is used because they all formally lived in Chapleau and have family here. For those of you who do not know these three special individuals, we are pleased to introduce them to you.

Doris Mitchell

Doris was born in Sudbury and moved to Chapleau with her parents (who are originally from here, and still live here) when she was 10. She attended Chapleau Public School and Ecole Secondaire Chapleau High School. Like many Chapleau children, she was heavily involved in activities; including figure skating, air cadets and girls basketball. Knowing right away she wanted a career in health, Doris attended Confederation College, graduating in 1991 from the RN diploma program. Until 1994 she worked at the Chapleau General Hospital, later moving to work in Timmins and obtain her Bachelor of Science in Nursing (Honours) in 2005 from Laurentian University.

Becoming a physician was something that often passed her thoughts over the years, so when the new medical school in northern Ontario opened, she decided it was the perfect time to pursue this dream. Doris' interests lie in family medicine, with special interest in geriatrics and palliation, due to the diversity and challenges that come with practicing medicine from cradle to grave.

She is confident that the NOSM focus on teaching medical students about the challenges and rewards of practicing medicine and rural and remote areas will leave her well prepared to practice in Chapleau. "I am excited to return to Chapleau when I am finished medical school," states Doris, "so I can give back to the community that has enriched my life in many ways. My children are also excited to be closer to their extended family as well."

Her advice for future prospective medical students from Chapleau: "Preparation for medical school begins in high school and needs to be carried through to University" advises Mitchell. "I would recommend getting involved in as many things as you can. This includes things like student government, sports, and volunteerism. It goes without saying that you need to study hard. In addition to academic success, medical schools look for a well rounded person with a diversity of interests who has demonstrated a strong sense of community."

Kendra Saari

Born in Winnipeg, Kendra's parents moved back to Chapleau when her father, Dr. Frank Broomhead, finished medical school. At that time Kendra was 1.

Attending Chapleau Public School and Chapleau High School, Kendra participated in gymnastics, skiing, and numerous high school sports. At the age of 18 she left Chapleau, to pursue her Bachelor of Arts in Communication Disorders and Masters of Science in Speech Language Pathology.

In 1995 she graduated from the University of North Dakota as a Speech Language Pathologist.

During the twelve years Kendra worked as a speech pathologist, she worked in a number of different settings in both northern and southern Ontario. Her last position, before making the decision to attend medical school, was as the Director of Rehabilitation Services at the Manitoulin Sudbury Community Care Access Centre (now known as the Public School and

Relay For Life takes on special meaning for two local girls

By Jim Prince

They are not even teenagers yet, however two young Chapleau girls are making a difference in the lives of others they will never meet.

It can't get any more personal than one's own hair, and yet two local girls have chosen to give up their hair to help others endure a life with Cancer.

For the first time the Canadian Cancer Society Relay for Life will be held in Chapleau on June 20 and for friends Lauren Hamill and Jessica Dionne, it will be a special moment when, during the relay activities, a plastic bag containing a long braid of hair is turned over to the Cancer Society.

"It only takes two years to grow it long enough and I wanted to help

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Editor,

This letter is an invitation to all of your readers who are cancer survivors including all those who are presently battling cancer.

The Relay For Life of the Canadian Cancer Society, to be held in Chapleau on June 20th, promises to be a very exciting community event. There are 3 main components to the Relay: the luminary ceremony, and secondly, the inspirational 12-hour overnight team-walk for fundraising.

The third component, is the celebration for all local cancer survivors. At 6:00 pm, at the Chapleau High School track, there will be a get-together celebration with refreshments, followed by the highlight of the survivor celebration; the walking of the Survivors' Victory Lap is the 1st lap of the Relay, and will take place at 7:00 p.m.

As the organizer of the Survivors' Program, I am inviting all cancer survivors (including those recently diagnosed!) to call me at 864-0724 for more information about this part of the Relay, and to register to take part in the Survivor Program of our 1st Chapleau Relay for Life! Special arrangements for comfort, parking and mobility can be made for any participant with particular needs. Please call!

Lastly, I wish to acknowledge the generous financial support of Dr. John Taylor and of Model Drug Store, for the realization of the Survivor Program including the Survivor tent and celebration. Many thanks!

REMERCIEMENT

Sincères remerciements lors du décès de Mr. Glorien Ayotte à tous les parents et amis qui ont témoigné un geste de tendresse soit par votre présence, par des cartes, fleurs, messes et nourriture. Merci à ceux qui ont fait des dons à la Société du cancer. Un gros merci au Père Jacques Fortin ainsi que le chant, Gilmartin Funeral Home, le comité paroissial pour le bon repas très apprécié. Je vous en suis reconnaissante et vous remercie très sincèrement. Francoise Fournier fortunate to have a beautiful school to accommodate the French speaking students, however they never left out the English speaking students.

They continue to invite them, their parents, and overall the whole Chapleau community to take part in all their special events. This past weekend the school hosted a wonderful prom night. Student were excited and spent the day preparing for this event and I must say they were not disappointed. After taking pictures at the peace park, we headed over to the school to drop the kids off. We wanted to go inside and take a few pictures which we were told was the best place for pictures as they had made some wonderful back drops.

We were welcomed into the school as though it was our dance. Mr. Tessier, you and your school has made a special impression on our family and I thank you for making this years prom some-thing our children will remember for the rest of their lives. You have also demonstrated the there is unity and love among our students and that they are all God's children whether French or English.

God Bless and keep up the great work.

Northeast CCAC).

The opening of the NOSM provided Kendra and her husband Stephen with an opportunity they could not pass up.

The life choice has not come without sacrifices for both of them, and their two young children, Megan, 8 and Jack, 3. It has had a tremendous impact on family; emotionally, mentally and financially. "We have had great family support," states Kendra. "Without them this huge endeavour would not be possible."

Kendra plans to focus her studies on family medicine and obstetrics, and is appreciative of the small class sizes (56 students per year 32 in Sudbury, 24 in Thunder Bay) that enhance student learning. She looks forward to returning to the community she was raised in and providing medical services to the people of Chapleau.

Stephen Saari

From lawyer to medical school, Stephen proves there are no excuses for not making a dramatic career change when you know it's right. Born and raised in Chapleau, Stephen attended Chapleau Public School and Chapleau High School. After high school he spent 6 years working with family (Saari Contracting) in the logging industry.

Stephen left for university at the age of 22. In 1996 he graduated from the University of Winnipeg with a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Political Science, followed by a Bachelor of Laws in 1999 from the University of Western Ontario. In 2001 he was called to the Bar and shortly after he moved to Sudbury and practiced law at Weaver Simmons.

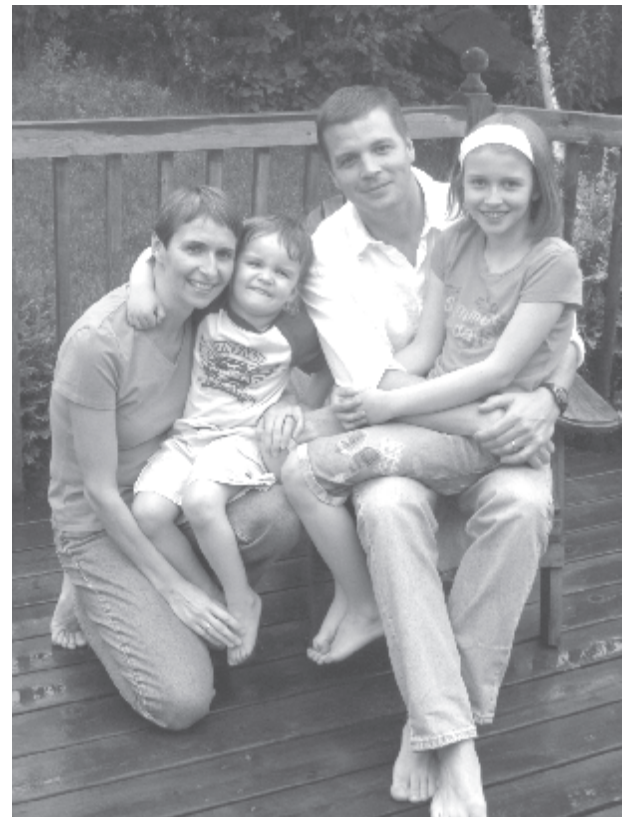

Medical school was always something he and his wife Kendra had talked about and in 2005 the opportunity had arrived. Stephen applied and was accepted as a member of the Charter Class at NOSM in 2005. His focus will be in Family and Emergency Medicine.

"NOSM is a leader in its curriculum and technology. It is truly dedicated to the people of the north and meeting the needs of the north," shares Stephen. "The majority of its students are from northern communities and so they have strong family and community ties."

Offering words of advice to future medical students, Steve states "Don't let anyone ever tell you that you can't do something. It doesn't matter where you come from." And of course, "You are never too old to go back to school."

Both Stephen and Kendra are thankful to Chapleau Health participating in annual Terry Fox Runs and other events, Jessica made the decision to offer her hair on her own.

And Lauren, despite her young age, has an equally strong commitment to helping others and the Cancer Society. She has forsaken Christmas presents over the past four years, and instead has asked that their cash value be donated to the Terry Fox Foundation in support of Cancer research. Now, Lauren is likely to show up at your doorstep out collecting pledges she hopes will amount to at least one thousand dollars in the next week and is quietly confident residents here will ensure she meets the goal she has set to have her hair sheared off. "I've already raised over one hundred dollars," she said following just a few days into her efforts which will include door to door canvassing of the community.

It takes approximately 12 donations of unprocessed hair and costs about $1,200 to craft a single hand-sewn wig for a child.

The efforts by the two girls are part of what is shaping up to be a huge event on June 20th when a large crowd of participants is expected to accompany the girls for the Relay for Life to be held at the Earle J. Freeborn Field of Dreams at the high schools.

The 12 - hour Relay commences 7 o'clock with the Victory Walk by survivors. Then at 10 o'clock candles, which have been purchased earlier at a special tent, are placed around the perimeter of the field and lit in memory or in honour of friends or family who are battling cancer or who have passed away because of the cancer.

In preparation for the expected large turnout, the Cancer Society has arranged for the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs to be on site serving food and beverages.

Canadian Cancer Statistics 2008 highlights:

* This year approximately 166,400 Canadians will be diagnosed with cancer and about 73,800 will die from the disease.
*The five-year relative survival rate for all cancers combined is 62 per cent (excluding Quebec**).
* Lung cancer remains the leading cause of cancer death for men and women.

* Almost 40 per cent of Canadian women and almost 45 per cent of men will develop cancer during their lifetimes.

* About 24 percent of women and almost 29 per cent of men, or approximately 1 out of every 4 Canadians, will die from cancer.

For all childhood cancers combined, the five-year survival is estimated to be 82 per cent an increase of 11 per cent over 15 years.

* Since 1985, there has been a dramatic decline in childhood cancer death rates (dropping from approximately 40 to 20 per million children*).

* Childhood cancer incidence rates have remained relatively

"One of the two black bears who joined the Rotarians for the clean-up. The Rotarians chose not to linger for the traditional group picture after the clean-up."

By George Evans Rotarians gathered on Tuesday, June 3, Chapleau's Old Fort Road to clean up their 2-kilometre Adopt-a-Highway project. They were encouraged by approximately ten million black flies to work as quickly as possible and their work was supervised by two black bears.

The Rotarians and helpful family members discovered that the shoulders and ditches of their stretch of highway were relatively cleaner this year. This is perhaps a hopeful sign that drivers and passengers are learning to take care

Any RBC will deliver your donation to Chapleau Branch for deposit.

On Thursday, June 5th 2008, Brad Picody was a recipient of a new kidney. Brad is from the Chapleau Ojibwe First Nation, and has four children.

Brad had been waiting a long 5 years for a new kidney. Our thoughts & Prayers are with the donor, may he/she rest in peace.

Brad is currently at the Ottawa General hospital, recuperating. He is progressing and doing well with his new kidney. His new kidney started its job immediately, which is great news. He is expected to remain in the hospital for 10 to 14 days.

A bank account at the Royal Bank of Canada has been opened to assist him and his family financially when they are in Ottawa. Just a day before the call from the transplant team he was in the process of moving to Ottawa, therefore monetary donations would be greatly appreciated, to help them get on their feet while he slowly recovers from this lengthy operation.

Donations can be made at any RBC with the above information.

Thank you very much.

Swing est de retour à Chapleau!

Pour ouvrir les festivités de la St-Jean, le Centre culturel Louis-Hémon présente le groupe Swing. Le spectacle aura lieu le 19 juin à 20 heures au cafétorium de l'École secondaire Trillium. La formation Swing est de retour avec un nouvel album et un nouveau spectacle. Reconnus partout à travers le Canada, pour leur son unique (mélange de musique pop urbaine et traditionnelle) et leur énergie contagieuse, Swing prend véritablement d'assaut la scène.

M é l a n g e explosif de rythmes, de scratches infectieux et de rimes à rigodons ; leur musique techno-trad fracasse les conventions et conjugue au présent le son familier des fêtes traditionnelles. Le résultat est frais, énergique et jeune... au superlatif! Cette interprétation ludique du bon-vivant folklorique porté par des rythmes urbains arnaque à nouveau la musique traditionnelle.

La formation Swing, composée du chanteur et excellent danseur Michel Bénac et du violoniste Jean-Philippe Goulet, a été la grande gagnante du Gala des prix Trille Or 2005 en remportant trois prix pour le Meilleur spectacle, le Meilleur groupe et le Meilleur vidéoclip « Au nom du père et du fils et du set carré ».

« Techno-trash, acid-bacaise, peu importe la tournure employée, Swing poursuit dans le défrichage musical... Même s'il s'ouvre sur le monde et sa diversité sonore, le groupe Swing garde tous ses accents francophones, encouragé par ses origines ontariennes d'une fesse, québécoises de l'autre » (Le Droit)

History, geography and culture, all in one trip!

Who thought that students could enjoy history and geography on a school trip. Well, a group of Our Lady of Fatima students from Grade 4-8 did just that on their recent trip to Quebec City. Students attended several workshops which reviewed the daily life of French and English soldiers and strategies used during the 1759 battle on the Plains of Abraham. They toured the Beupre Coast visiting a copper shop and woodcarvers' studio, the Basilica Ste. Anne de Beupre, Canyon Sainte Anne and Montmorency Falls. The students spent considerable time visiting the Citadelle and old Quebec City with its historically restored streets and shops, many museums, and Chateau Frontenac. Let's not forget the visit to the sugar bush for a traditional meal and soiree. The teen dance on the St. Lawrence River, and that modern cuisine-poutine. Yes, learning is fun!. Many thanks to Ms. Paulette Albert for her inspiration and planning. Thanks to Karen Burns and Jacques Nicol for supervising our group of learners.

Community partnership grant for access to health care services

Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services and the Township of Chapleau have teamed up to take advantage of a grant available from the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs called the Rural Economic Development (RED) Program. Through this program Services de santé de Chapleau and the Township of Chapleau will be applying for funds for a project to improve access to health care services. The funds for the Chapleau project would be used to (1) enhance the student bursary program, (2) enhance and expand recruitment activities, (3) develop a program to encourage youth into health careers and (4) train a local recruitment coordinator. This project consists of both short and long-term strategies to deal with Chapleau's health care recruitment problem.

Chapleau, like the rest of Ontario, is in need of physicians, nurses, physiotherapists, occupational therapists etc. The Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care does not give funds to hospitals to recruit health care professionals. Instead, funds intended for hospital services must be used to pay for recruitment activities. For Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services, these costs are in excess of $200,000 per year and include health care professionals' travel expenses, recruitment services, advertising, recruitment incentives, housing subsidies and recruitment/job fairs.

Through the Rural Economic Development Program, the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs will pay up to 50% of a project. Applications are assessed according to several Program criteria of which one is the amount of financial support from private sector sources. This includes donations from the community. Therefore, in order to have its application approved, Chapleau must demonstrate that it has strong community involvement and partnership in this initiative. The financial support of residents, businesses, service clubs, First Nations, organizations and industry is needed to make this project a success.

Residents from Chapleau and the surrounding communities wishing to contribute to this project may send donations to the Chapleau General Hospital Foundation, Box 757 Chapleau, ON, P0M 1K0. For further information about this project, please contact Gail Bignucolo, CEO, Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services at 864-3050.

THE LOCAL MARKET PLACE

CHADWIC HOME, FAMILY RESOURCE CENTRE

Offers shelter, emotional support, and information for women and their children who are in crisis situations. We have a Toll Free Crisis Line which is staffed 24 hours a day. We can arrange for free transportation to the Centre for women who live in the Algoma/Chapleau area. We also offer support to women who live in the communities of Chapleau, White River, Dubreuilville, and Hornepayne through our Outreach Program. Our Outreach Worker travels to those communities to meet with women who need emotional support as well as information about their rights and options. If you need to speak with the Outreach Worker when she is in your community, you can call the Centre at any time to set up an appointment. You do not need to be a resident of the Centre in order to use our services. If you need someone to talk to or if you just need someone to listen, call our Toll Free Crisis line at 1-800-461-2242 or you can drop in at the Centre. We are here for you.

THE CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY RESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN 2008

The campaign was a great success again this year largely due to our dedicated group of canvassers and the many chores done by other volunteers.

We raised a total of $8,493.66 which once again reflects the generous nature of the citizens of Chapleau and surrounding area.

A sincere thank you to everyone involved especially the young students from our three elementary schools whose posters raised awareness in a very striking way.

See you in April 2009.

Kathryn Crichton, Chair-Residential Campaign
