Industry and Government leaders study cluster development in Chapleau

“Keynote speaker Ifor Ffowcs-Williams addressed the “Preparing for Growth Workshop” Monday, June 22 in the conference room of Aux Trois Moulins Motel.

by Bill Ivey
The existing and emerging forest-based industries of Chapleau form a natural industrial cluster. This fact inspired Bill Ivey, bioproducts commercialization specialist for Innovation Initiatives Ontario North (IION), to arrange a workshop for local industry and government leaders to learn about the opportunities and benefits of industrial clusters.

A cluster is a group of related businesses that work together to help each other grow, and to generate new, related business opportunities. This cluster concept is a method of economic development that has proven itself in many small towns throughout the world.

About 30 folks gathered in the conference room of Aux Trois Moulins Motel last Monday to hear two renowned experts in rural development and industrial cluster development share ideas and lessons learned from the experience of many other small towns like Chapleau who revitalized their economies through industrial clusters. The speakers were Mike Stolte, Executive Director of the Centre for Innovative Entrepreneurial Leadership and Ifor Ffowcs-Williams of Cluster Navigators Ltd. in New Zealand.

Those attending the day-long workshop were inspired by the stories of small towns, many much smaller and more remote than Chapleau, some of which had completely lost their industrial base, who re-invented themselves through co-operation and collaboration of business, government and academia (the “triple helix” as Ifor termed it). These towns not only renewed their economy, some of them went on to become “centres of global excellence”, the world leaders in their field.

The attendees were not only listeners, but actively participated in the workshop through group and plenary discussions. Ideas were not only talked about, but decisions were made; the decision to work together to place Chapleau on the path to economic growth and development.

Mayor Earle Freeborn volunteered to act as interim chair of a volunteer Task Force dedicated to the development of Chapleau’s bio-economy cluster.

The lesson this writer learned from the workshop was: If you want your town to prosper and to become a great place to live, you must believe in its potential, and love it enough to work with others to develop that potential.

Les postes se combler!

Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services est heureux d'annoncer notre taux de postes vacants est maintenant réduit à 11.84%. Cela porte notre demande à 13 postes vacants. Le recrutement se fait encore pour l'embauche d'un ergothérapeute, un physiothérapeute, des médecins de famille, un administrateur des soins infirmiers, des infirmières autorisées et des infirmières auxiliaires autorisées à temps partiel ainsi que deux infirmières praticiennes (Foley et Chapleau).

Notre objectif n'est pas de recruter seulement que les postes vacants à l'instant, mais encore à planifier pour l'avenir afin d'assurer le nombre requis de personnes employées à SSCHS et d'être en mesure de répondre aux besoins et services de santé futurs.

Nous prévoyons créer un partenariat avec le Collège Northern afin d'offrir un programme d'infirmières auxiliaires ici même à Chapleau. Nous avons fait des sondages dans l'ensemble de la communauté afin de déterminer s'il existe un intérêt avant de commencer le programme. Au cours de la dernière année, il y avait deux candidats pour notre nouveau programme de bourses d'études; Mme Julie Gervais et M. Marc Fortin. Pour l'année scolaire 2009/2010, la date limite pour soumettre une demande d'inscription pour infirmières autorisées, infirmières auxiliaires autorisées, physio-thérapie et ergothérapie est le 9 juin, 2009. Les applications peuvent-être trouvées sur notre site web www.sschs.ca.

Nous sommes très heureux d'annoncer que nous avons recruté deux résidentes locales, Mandy Donovan et Nicole Labranche dans le département de visualisation diagnostique. Nous pouvons offrir des services dans les deux langues officielles au cours de toutes les heures d'opération. Bienvenue à bord!

Nous avons contacté plusieurs collèges et universités pour montrer notre intérêt envers le recrutement d'étudiants et la possibilité de les accueillir pour faire leurs stages cliniques à Chapleau. Nous avons également envoyé des brochures et des dépliants afin que les élèves disposent d'informations à la portée de la main pour choisir l'endroit idéal pour faire leur stage clinique. Nous avons assisté à la foire d'emploi du Collège Cambrian en Novembre dernier afin de promouvoir notre communauté et notre organisation pour les étudiants. Cette année, nous avons accueilli 3 infirmières étudiantes. Les Services de santé de Chapleau Health Services ont donné à ces élèves une diversité d'expériences dans les soins de longue durée, les soins actifs et les services d'urgence.

En plus d'afficher les possibilités d'emploi pour les infirmières et les médecins avec Professions Santé Ontario, nous participons aussi à "La garantie d'emploi pour les diplômés en soins infirmiers de l'Ontario" qui est financé par le Ministère de la santé et des soins de longue durée. Ce programme recruter pour des postes vacants dans le futur. Par exemple, si une personne souhaite s'installer à Chapleau et nous pouvons que lui offrir un poste à temps partiel, on peut également les informer qu'une autre organisation offre un emploi à temps partiels. Il est possible que cette personne puisse travailler pour les deux organisations.

Comme vous pouvez le voir, il y a beaucoup d'idées et de partenariats qui sont sous développement pour aider au recrutement du personnel. Si vous avez des suggestions, s'il vous plaît contacter la Coordinatrice des ressources humaines au chapleauhr@sschs.ca. Toute idée peut ouvrir une nouvelle opportunité pour nous.

Know what to do when it's hot Summer has arrived, and the hot weather is here. The Sudbury & District Health Unit encourages everyone to know what to do when it's hot. High heat and humidity can be a threat to health. Signs and symptoms of heat-related illness include breathing rapidly, feeling weak or fainting, being more tired than usual, and developing a headache or confusion. If you or someone in your care experiences these symptoms, contact a health care professional, friend, or family member for help. In emergencies, call 911. Here are some tips on how to prevent heat-related illness:

- Be sun safe, seek shade, wear a wide-brimmed hat and use an SPF 30+ sunscreen.

Appel de demandes pour la création d'équipes Santé familiale

Le ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée de l'Ontario invite les fournisseurs de soins de santé ou les groupes communautaires à présenter une demande en vue de la création d'équipes Santé familiale dans les réseaux locaux d'intégration des services de santé (RLISS) suivants : Nord-Ouest, Nord-Est, Érié St-Clair, Simcoe Nord Muskoka, Centre-Ouest, Centre-Est, Champlain et Sud-Est.

REPORT FROM Queen's Park BY Mike Brown,

Provincial Member of Parliament
for Algoma-Manitoulin

Ontario leads the way to eliminate elder abuse

It is estimated that between 65,000 and 115,000 older adults in this province are subject to some form of abuse or neglect.

While even one case of elder abuse is too many, the sad reality is that as many as 10 per cent of seniors are affected by what the United Nations has described as a significant but poorly understood global public health and human rights issue.

Abuse of any kind is unacceptable, and we need to be vigilant when it involves those who are potentially dependent on their abusers or when the abuse is shrouded in silence through fear, ignorance or embarrassment.

Elder abuse and neglect can take many forms: physical, verbal, emotional, spiritual, sexual, and financial. It can be perpetrated by anyone in a position of power, authority or trust with their victim, be they family members, friends, neighbours or caregivers.

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day, observed each year on June 15, aims to lift that silence by encouraging open discussion about elder abuse and how we can put a stop to it.

Ontario has long been at the forefront of efforts to combat elder abuse. In 2002, the province introduced Canada's first comprehensive Elder Abuse Strategy.

To mark World Elder Abuse Awareness Day this year, the Minister Responsible for Seniors, Aileen Carroll, announced that the province will build on Ontario's Elder Abuse Strategy by, for the first time, providing ongoing operating funding for the Ontario Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse (ONPEA).

This new annual funding of $900,000 will ensure that the Network's regional consultants are better able to assist the 52 local elder abuse networks and other community organizations in every corner of the province.

And it brings the Ontario government's total investment in efforts to combat elder abuse to more than $4.2 million since 2002.

This spring the province also invested in a new province-wide hotline to assist abused and at-risk seniors through a $415,000 grant from the Ontario Trillium Foundation. The Seniors Safety Line provides information, referrals, and support 24 hours per day, seven days per week, in over 150 languages.

The Ontario government is committed to fostering communities where seniors can live safely, with dignity, and as independently as possible. But nothing is a bigger roadblock to achieving this goal than the lingering shadow of elder abuse.

Ultimately, it is up to all of us to be aware of and help prevent abuse. To find out more about the problem of elder abuse and what you can do to help, go to www.onpea.org.

If you are in an abusive situation, or know someone who is, please contact police or call the Seniors Safety line at 1-866-299-1011.

For further information, please contact the Constituency Office of Mike Brown, M P P , A l g o m a - M a n i t o u l i n , at 1-800-831-1899 or mbrown.mpp.co@liberal.ola.org

Deduct Your Travel Expenses

When it comes to deducting travel expenses, make sure you understand all of the rules before you even begin the process.

According to Chartered Accountant Nathan Choran, Goldfarb, Shulman, Patel & Co. LLP in Concord, Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) has very specific regulations about what can and cannot be deducted.

"The general rule for self-employed individuals and corporations is that travel expenses are deductible as long they are incurred for business purposes."

"While travel expenses are usually equated with business or employment, another key area that should not be overlooked is medical travel," explains Chartered Accountant Ron McFadyen, McFadyen Consulting, in Niagara on the Lake.

"If medical care is not available nearby, then your travel expenses may qualify as medical expenses for the tax credit, saving you potentially significant costs."

Business Travel Expenses

Choran explains that, while the CRA does not limit the amount of travel that is deductible, it is subject to the general principle for all business expenses that they be reasonable in the circumstances. "Therefore, avoid being extravagant on business trips, if you want greater certainty that your business travel will be tax deductible, if audited."

Avoid claiming personal travel expenses. If you are audited by the CRA, the claim will not only be denied, but if you are a shareholder of a corporation making the claim, you may also be personally assessed with a taxable benefit for the cost of the travel.

What can you claim?

Deductible business travel expenses involve vehicle expenses, as well as lodging, meals and entertainment expenses. For tax purposes, only 50 per cent of meals and entertainment can be deducted. Where convention meals are concerned, they have a deemed cost of $50 per day for tax purposes, unless they are billed separately by the organizer.

There are some exceptions to the 50 per cent limitation on meals and entertainment. For example, if you are travelling on an airplane, train or bus - any meal and drink costs incurred, whether as part of the ticket price or otherwise, are fully deductible.

For employees, vehicle expenses are potentially deductible if the employee is required to work away from their employer's place of business or in different places, and the employment contract requires them to pay for such travel costs or motor vehicle expenses. Deductible vehicle expenses include fuel and oil, maintenance and repairs, insurance, licence and registration fees, as well as certain other costs.

If an employer provides an allowance to an employee for business travel while using their own vehicle, the maximum amount deductible for 2009 by the employer is 52 cents for the first 5,000 kilometres driven by the individual on business, and 46 cents per kilometre thereafter.

Medical Travel Expenses

"Make sure you keep detailed records," continues McFadyen, "because once again the rules are complicated."

CRA stipulates that it must be necessary for you to travel away from your community to obtain the medical treatment - similar services cannot be available locally."

Your travel must also meet two distance thresholds. To deduct vehicle expenses or alternate transportation costs (bus, train or plane) you must be required to travel at least 40 kilometres one way to seek medical services. And if you are required to travel at least 80 kilometres one way, then you can also deduct your accommodation, parking and meals.

Generally, meals and accommodation are restricted to the patient. However, if you are accompanying the patient, you may be able to write off your meal and accommodation expenses as well. To qualify, a doctor must certify that an attendant is necessary.

To claim medical expenses, you must retain your receipts for each expense. If you do not have receipts, then you can follow the allowable flat-rate amounts prescribed by CRA. Currently, the flat rate travel allowance is 55.5 cents per kilometre travelled and $17 per meal, or $51 per day.

Both Choran and McFadyen agree: it's wise to know the rules and seek professional advice from a Chartered Accountant to avoid problems at tax time.

Ontario's adoption records are now open.

visit www.ontario.ca/adoptioninfo

Effective June 1, 2009, Ontario's adoption records are open. This means that adopted adults and birth parents can apply for post-adoption birth information from birth records and adoption orders.

An adopted adult, 18 years of age or older, can now apply for a copy of his or her original birth registration and adoption order. A birth parent can receive information from the birth registration and adoption order of the child that was placed for adoption once that child turns 19 years old.

If you want your identifying information kept private, and if the adoption order was made before September 1, 2008, adopted adults and birth parents can file a disclosure veto.

To learn more about your right to information and privacy regarding adoption, visit www.ontario.ca/adoptioninfo or call 1-800-461-2156 (TTY 416-325-3408).

30-Hour Famine a great success!

Many people will remember how Sam, Stephen, and John Lee; along with myself, (Hannah Lavoie), went door to door in March and April, asking for sponsors. Once again, the people of Chapleau, Ontario have demonstrated their generosity and community spirit by helping raise $1,573.78 for the 30-Hour Famine!

The 30-Hour Famine is a program run by World Vision, which encourages young people across the country to go without food for thirty hours and raise money to help support needy children in Africa and other impoverished areas. Sam Lee states, "When I found out that there are millions of children around the world who are hungry, I felt that this was one way that I could do a little bit to feed some of these children." More information can be found at www.30hourfamine.org.

We want to thank everyone who gave donations both small and large for their willingness to help with this project. Your support of this effort means a lot to us. Stephen Lee says, "I think it was really good to see how people give to stuff like this. It really says a lot about Chapleau itself, that they're willing to give to a good cause."

The Chapleau Pentecostal Youth Group was proud to take part in the Famine. We're eager to do our part in getting rid of poverty once and for all. Because poverty is real, and it has a huge impact on a lot of children and young people just like us. Sam emphasizes, "While I was on the famine, I understood a little bit of what those children go through. However, I had something to look forward to. I knew I was going to get food when the 30-Hour Famine was over. They don't. Their famine lasts until their next meal. And they never know when their next meal is."

I think this is a way that everyone can get involved. We can't all be in a third-world country serving food to the homeless and starving, but it costs money to buy supplies and send the workers over there, so that's where we come in. John Lee agrees, "That we were able to help people from overseas, in a small place like this, you know, it was our part that we could do to help out."

Thank you for helping us prove that small numbers can do BIG things!

Transport Canada Boating Presentation at the Shoals Provincial Park - Sunday, July 4, 2009

By Sarah Doyon

Looking for a place to unpack your tent or trailer for a night, weekend or season? Or maybe just get away from town for a great day? If so, The Shoals Provincial Park should be your destination for your long over due get away!

This year The Shoals has many things to offer. One of which this year is a Boating and Safety day. Transport Canada will be at The Shoals on July 4th to educate visitors on boating safety. So take the opportunity to brush up on your boating knowledge and come out and enjoy the following presentations: Pleasure Craft Courtesy checks (so bring your boat), boat safety information material, demonstration of various safety equipment. They will also be addressing the federal regulations that govern pleasure boating in Canada. A presentation for ALL ages! For more information visit www.boatingsafety.gc.ca

Many people don't think of The Shoals as a get away destination because it's only 48 kilometres from town. But for the avid, average or beginner fishermen, camper, canoeist or outdoorsmen, it's the perfect location to get away. The Shoals has a lot of things to offer other than just camping on one of our 44 sites, and a beautiful sandy beach for swimming or enjoying the sun. It has a leisurely self-guided hiking trail, named the Lonesome Bog. While walking through this one kilometre trail, you'll experience things you take for granted on a day to day basis, such as the black spruce forest, the soft sphagnum moss, which feels like a soft carpet beneath you and other special shrubs and species, which rarely get the appreciation they deserve.

Our friendly and knowledgeable staff offers you various services, such as on site delivery for firewood, ice and food stuffs. The Shoals also offers a central garbage and fish cleaning station to help prevent bears from visiting your site. We also offer a trailer and boat storage; boat and motor, canoe and paddleboats rentals as well. As you can see, basically anything you need (as long as it is in our power to obtain) you shall receive. Upon entering or leaving Shoals, make sure you check out the gate house, where you will find souvenirs, new Ontario Parks merchandise, and gifts for those special people in your life.

Not into camping, swimming or hiking? The surrounding lakes make for great fishing. The average fisherman usually leaves the lake, happy and proud of their catch. The following species are found in these lakes:

Northern pike, walleye, whitefish, lake trout, perch, large and small mouth bass.

The main Access Points for this kind of fishing is the Prairee Bee Access Point right in the heart of the park. Remember you must always possess and have a fishing licence with you. We also ask that you please respect the Ontario fishing rules and regulations.

Unlike other campgrounds, The Shoals does not have electricity or a comfort station, which makes the experience in the woods at Shoals even more realistic. So looking for a home away from home for the summer is easy. For this reason The Shoals does offer Seasonal leasing. If you're looking for a more private experience with your family or crew, a group campsite is available by reservation for a 6 person party or more. To know more about these two options Cont'd on P.12

Financial Tips for Travellers

Travel is calling your name – how can you make sure you're not cut short financially?

“Whether you're travelling for business or pleasure - plan your money needs ahead of time,” says Chartered Accountant Michael Lauber, FCA, a Toronto consultant and former Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments.

“Determine how much money you will need and how you will carry it. Depending on the country you're travelling in, you have different options – debit card, credit card, travellers' cheques and cash. Some cards may not be accepted or may not function in your location.”

Lauber offers these financial travel tips:

Will that be cash or debit?

-Travel with enough local currency to meet your immediate needs on arrival, including taxis or buses, tips and some meals.

-Order currency ahead of time.

-Approximately 40 different currencies are available for delivery to your financial institution within a few days.

-Debit cards make cash convenient to access at ATMs, which are found in most countries and at major airports.

-Minimize the fees involved with debit-card withdrawals by taking out enough cash to cover your expenses.

-Use traveller's cheques as emergency backups.

-Consider using Internet banking – it will facilitate accessing/transferring money in the event of an unexpected expense, but talk to an identity theft expert first to get their opinion on its security.

-Pay with a credit card.

Take security precautions

At ATMs (consider using only those recognized by financial institutions if possible), take the same precautions you would at home: be aware of your surroundings, and cover the keypad when conducting transactions.

-Use your debit card at bona fide establishments only.

-Protect cash and backup credit cards in the hotel safe.

-For extra security, use a money belt.

Be credit card savvy

-Notify your financial institution and credit card company of your travel plans and dates. Security systems look for unusual patterns of expenses, especially for infrequent travellers. If picked up, the result could be a frozen bank account due to “suspicious activity” and financial issues could occur during your travels.

-Carry two credit cards to avoid problems should one card be lost, damaged or cancelled for security purposes.

Spread the risk around – give your second backup card to your travel partner.

A credit card provides a trail of expenses, may accumulate points, and offers car-insurance benefits. Review your card's provision regarding car insurance to ensure you are properly covered.

Beware of currency conversions

-Consider applying for a U.S. credit card if you are travelling to the U.S. extensively as it may save you conversion rates in the long term.

-Snowbirds – consider using a credit card in U.S. dollars.

-Use traveller's cheques specific to the region you are visiting – cheques are available in several different currencies.

-Don't put too much of your Canadian money into foreign currency cash or travellers cheques as you will pay for the conversion rate twice – once before the trip and the second time, when you cash them in at home.

-Finally, Lauber offers this most important piece of advice - enjoy your trip!

Transport Canada Boating Presentation at the Shoals Provincial Park - Sunday, July 4, 2009

please contact 705-864-3137.

Another thing to discover at The Shoals is its clean and wonderful interior campsites, which are spread out though out the little Wawa Lake, Prairee Bee Lake and Windermere/Goldie Lake. So why not enjoy a nice canoe ride followed by a private over night stay at the site of your choice. For the more avid canoeist there are two canoe routes accessible to everyone. The Southern loop, which is a basic 16 kilometre-1-2 day trip. This route starts and ends at the park, giving you the official tour of the lake and part of the park. For more of a challenge, the Northern loop runs at 40 kilometres-2-7day trip. The various starting locations include, Prairie Bee access point, the Grazing River, the park campground and the Via Rail stops, at either Musk or Nicholson

So as you can see whether your plans are to hike, swim, relax, camp or be out on the water, the Shoals has something for everyone. Consider it your number one destination for the day, week or summer.

Well make it our priority to make you feel at home. Take a special trip to The Shoals this summer, relax and see what we have to offer. Let us take the extra weight off you shoulders during your vacation.

While visiting The Shoals you'll become family of the park! We hope to see you out there!
